Dear Debora

I ment to have written to you by Lucretia but had not time, I now write you to ask what kind of a buckle you want for Mrs Fifield whither it be Pearl or Gilt or what kind or whither it be for Mrs Fifield or for her son William write me by Henry who I suppose will come in Wednesday to be examined and send by him My Shirt Stockings & tell Pa that I ment to have sent his Tobacco on Saturday but am going to look for it - It was gone & Pat said some Black fellows shud Stolen it tell him I will send him some in a few days. I have no news to tell except that Lizz went to meeting Sunday and behaved very well. Indeed, Brother Henry it sick has been so for a few days past of the Whimps Doct Gay has been twice to see him, he is rather better to day, I suppose you have seen in the paper the great Abolition Riots in New York tell Anne to be careful what she says or she will have her furniture burnt

In great haste & from Affec Brother
